Defendants.

CLIFTON THOMAS, by his attorney(s), THE LAW OFFICES OF WALE MOSAKU, P.C., complaining of the defendants, The City of New York and Police Officers John Doe 1-6 (hereinafter collectively and individually referred to as the Defendant(s)), upon information and belief alleges as follows:NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. This is an action at law to redress the deprivation of rights secured to the plaintiff under color of statute, ordinance, regulation, custom, and/or to redress the deprivation of rights, privileges, and immunities secured to the plaintiff by the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, and by Title 42 U.S.C. § 1983 [and § 1985], [and arising under the law and statutes of the State of New York].

JURISDICTION

2. The jurisdiction of this Court is invoked pursuant to 42 U.S.C. Section 1983, 28 U.S.C. Section 1343, and 28 U.S.C. Section 1331, and under the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

3. All causes of action not relying exclusively on the aforementioned federal causes of action as a basis of this Court's jurisdiction are based on the Court's supplemental jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1337 to hear state law causes of action. The events, parties, transactions, and injuries that form the basis of plaintiff's federal claims are identical to the events, parties, transactions, and injuries that form the basis of plaintiff's claims under applicable State and City laws.

4. As the deprivation of rights complained of herein occurred within the Southern District of New York, venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1391 (b) and (c).

THE PARTIES

5. Plaintiff is a resident of the County of Bronx, City and State of New York, United States of America. Plaintiff is a black male of full age.
6. At all relevant times, Police Officers John Doe 1-6 (hereinafter "defendant officers") were, upon information and belief, and still are, police officers of the Police Department of the City of New York.
7. At all times herein, defendant officers were employed as police officers of the City of New York, State of New York, and were acting under the color of their official capacity and their acts were performed under color of the statutes and ordinances of the City of New York and/or the State of New York. Defendant officers were the servants, agents, and employees of their co-defendant, the City of New York, so that their acts are imputed to the City of New York and its Police Department.
8. At all relevant times, the defendant City of New York was and is a municipal corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York, and was/is the employer of the defendant officers through it's Police Department, namely New York City Police Department, and the actions of the defendant officers complained of herein were done as part of the custom, practice, usage, regulation and/or direction of the City of New York.
9. Plaintiff sues all defendants in their individual and official capacities.

SATISFACTION OF THE PROCEDURAL PREREQUISITES FOR SUIT

10. All conditions precedent to filing of this action have been complied with; on June 4, 2007, within ninety days after the claims alleged in this complaint arose, a written notice of claim, sworn to by the plaintiff, was served upon the defendant City of New York by personal delivery of the notice in duplicate, to the person designated by law as one to whom a summons issued against such party may be delivered in an action in the applicable Courts. Plaintiff's claim was assigned Claim No. 2007PI016456.
11. At least thirty days have elapsed since the service of the above-mentioned notices of claim, and adjustment or payment of the claim has been neglected or refused.
12. This action, pursuant to New York State and City Law, has been commenced within one year and ninety days after the happening of the event upon which the claim is based.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

13. Upon information and belief, on or about March 8, 2007, between the hours of 02:00 p.m. and 05:00 p.m., the plaintiff was falsely arrested without probable cause by defendant officers, ostensibly for perpetrating the crime/offense of possession and/or sale of marijuana.
14. The defendant officers knew that the plaintiff had not committed the offenses he was accused of.
15. That on or about March 8, 2007, the plaintiff, who at the time was supervising renovation work that was taking place at 917 Summit Avenue, Bronx, New York (subject premises), had been approached at his home (909 Summit Avenue, Bronx, New York) and informed by one of his workers that the police officers were within the premises and in the process of arresting his workers at the subject premises.
16. That as such, the plaintiff hurried over to the subject premises to speak to the police officers.

17. That upon arriving at the subject premises, the plaintiff identified himself as the person who was supervising the renovation work that was taking place within the subject premises.
18. That the defendant officers, after having obtained identification from the plaintiff, without an iota of probable cause, then placed the plaintiff under arrest.
19. At the time plaintiff was arrested, he protested to and informed defendant officers that he had committed no crime or offense and offered to prove his innocence. However the defendant officers refused to pay any attention to plaintiff's entreaties, and arrested plaintiff in wanton and malicious disregard for the truth.
20. At the 44th police precinct of the city of New York, plaintiff was fingerprinted and photographed.
21. That the plaintiff was arraigned before a judge on or about March 11, 2007, and released on his own recognizance.

27. Consequently, plaintiff has been damaged and hereby demands compensatory and punitive damages in an amount to be proven at trial against each of the defendants, individually and severally.
28. The defendant officers were at all material times acting within the scope of their employment, and as such, the defendant City is vicariously liable for the defendant officers acts as described above.

charges made before the Court against the plaintiff were false and untrue.

Pursuant to Rules 33 and 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, defendant City of New York responds and objects to plaintiff's First Set of Interrogatories and First Request for the Production of Documents as follows:

GENERAL STATEMENT

1. By responding to any request, defendant does not concede the materiality of the subject to which it refers. Defendant's responses are made expressly subject to, and without waiving or intending to waive, any questions, or objections as to the competency, relevancy, materiality, privilege, or admissibility as evidence or for any other purpose, of any of the documents or information produced, or of the subject matter thereof, in any proceeding including the trial of this action or any subsequent proceeding.

2. Defendant objects to this Interrogatory and Document Request to the extent that it demands documents and/or information which are protected by the attorney-client or work-product privilege, or which constitute material prepared for litigation purposes.

3. Inadvertent production of any document or information which is privileged, was prepared in anticipation of litigation, or is otherwise immune from discovery, shall not constitute a waiver of any privilege or of another ground for objecting to discovery with respect to that document or any other document, or its subject matter, or the information contained therein, or of defendant's right to object to the use of any such document or the information contained therein during any proceeding in this litigation or otherwise.

4. Defendant objects in the entirety to any request for information or production from entities not represented by the Corporation Counsel of the City of New York.

7. Defendant is continuing to search for information responsive to plaintiff's requests and therefore reserves the right to supplement its response to each request with additional information, if and when such information becomes available to defendant's counsel. Re: Clifton Thomas v. City of New York, et al
07 CV 11425 (RWS)

Dear Ms. Privetttere:

As you are aware, on May 28, 2008, I served upon you (in hand in Court), a “deficiency” letter, with respect to the “Defendant’s Responses and Objections to Plaintiff’s First Set of Interrogatories and First request for the Production of Documents” dated May 22, 2008.

Pursuant to said letter, you were to have provided supplemental responses to said demands, within ten (10) business days of your receipt of the May 28, 2008 letter. That time period expired on or about June 12, 2008. We have not received a supplemental response to said demands, or indeed, any sort of response to the May 28, 2008 letter.

As such, in order not to unduly burden the Court, we request, once again, that you provide a supplemental response, by close of business on July 14, 2008. In the event said responses are not received (in hand) by close of business on July 14, 2008, the plaintiff will immediately move for appropriate judicial intervention and sanctions.

Kindly consider this letter the plaintiff’s fulfillment of his obligation to “meet and confer”, pursuant to the applicable rules.

Very truly yours,

WALE MOSAKU
